Varsity Theatre Plans Announced

March Show Plans Featuring New Film Presentation Disclosed to Ex. Board

Announcement of the reorganization of Varsity Theater was made today along wih the announcement of the appointment of Bill Buchan as director of the compus movie project. Buchan, named by President Edward Cockrum at the meeting of the Executive Board on Monday night, is the former editor of the Golden Gater.

Tentative plans call for a production along lines never before tried in the college. The first film will be a pictorial record of the outstanding events of the past few months.

"We have a medium that could be used by the college for more than entertainment," declared Buchan. "It is with this thought in mind that we will prepare our first edition of The News Parade. This film will be a pictorial history of outstanding affairs on the campus."

Under consideration is a proposal to present a program in conjunction with the premier of The News Parade. Using both college and outside talent, the affair would be given in the latter part of March. Proceeds from this would be turned over to the Franciscan to assist in financing that book.

Paddle Boys Swing As Freshmen Groan

By GEORGE PETERS

Wang, and another freshman is reddened by the malicious onslaughts of Tommy Thorpe and Marshal Blum of the freshman paddling committee.

Of course, it's all in fun, so say the paddle boys, but the poor frosh fail to see the jest in a stinging backside.

A fate more unendurable than this is having to abstain from verbal communication with the beauteous members of the fairer sex, with which this college is so bounteously filled.

Rule two, Frosh Commandments, should be changed to read, "You can look but you can't talk."

Oh well, it's only another week (if they live that long) until the incoming freshmen can lay aside their "jeans and dinks" and be accepted on a par, socially, with the other students in this college.

Elinor Stanton Is New Scribes Club President

Stepping into the presidency of the Scribes Club on the appointment of Miss Mary Kleinecke, Scribes sponsor, Elinor Stanton has changed the hour of club meetings as her first official act.

Continuing its policy of former years, the Scribes Club plans to present many guest speakers who have authority in the literary field.

New students interested in creative writing are invited.

Deaf School Head Addresses Practice Teachers February 18

Notices were sent out yesterday to the graduates of the January, May, and July classes of 1937 by Dean DuFour's office for the conference conducted by Mr. Stevenson, principal of the California School for the Deaf, located in Berkeley. Mr. Stevenson will hold the annual conference in Frederic Burk Auditorium, on Thursday, February 18, at 3 o'clock.

At this time Mr. Stevenson will present a demonstration of the work done by the school for deaf children. The qualifications set up by the State Dept. of Education for those eligible for the year's training in this work are: an A. B. degree; an elementary credential; must have done one semester of elementary teaching under San Francisco State's supervision.

San Francisco State is the only college in California that is allowed to send students to the Berkeley school. Graduates of other state colleges and universities must attend here one semester to complete the requirement. This is the fourth consecutive year that the College has had this honor.

Dean DuFour stated, "This is the only training center for teachers of the deaf west of the Mississippi River to have control of the recommendation of the candidates. It is obviously a splendid thing for our college. We wish to maintain the same high qualifications as in effect at present. Every teacher who has had this training was promptly employed."

Cooperation Asked In Building Campaign

Students Urged To Send Out Post Cards In Near Future

With the time rapidly approaching when a student committee of some thirty or forty persons will journey to Sacramento to urge the passage of State's two million dollar appropriation bill, Ed Cockrum, student body president, urged greater cooperation than ever before in the buying and sending of the recently announced post cards. He stressed the fact that each one of the cards might mean a vote in favor of the bill and a consequent margin of victory in the Assembly and Senate, instead of defeat.

The cards were presented and explained by Cockrum in last Friday's rally in the Gym. With each card is a letter which may or may not be sent out in the manner described in the Gym.

Members of the strategy committee brought out the fact that members of the San Francisco delegation to both Senate and Assembly were communicating with them at frequent intervals, keeping them posted on all last-minute developments. Favorable progress was invariably reported.

Grace Regier Named Art Club President

Grace Regier was unanimously reelected president of the Brush and Palette Club at a meeting held for the purpose of electing officers to serve during the coming term. Will Smith was elected vice-president and "Chili" Stchelokoff, treasurer. Two secretaries were selected, one a corresponding, and the second a recording officer. Barbara Young was unanimously picked for the former and Eleanor Radcliffe in a like manner for the latter position.

The new A. W. S. representative is Jane Dean, and Historian is Bernice Vassar. All officers were unanimously elected.

Westminster Club Meets

The Westminster Club, State's club for Protestant students of the campus, under the leadership of Bob Prather, will meet today at noon at the Westminster Center at Page and Webster Streets. Mr. Grunigen of the Christian Men's Business Association will speak on "The Challenge of 1937." All students are invited to attend. Coffee will be served to those bringing their luncheon.

Freshmen Are Feted At Informal Reception Today

Student Body Welcomes New Students Today At Assembly

Officially welcoming the new students to the College, the Student Body, faculty, and all affiliated organizations will cooperate to stage the traditionally bi-semesterly Freshman assembly under the chairmanship of W. J. J. Smith at two o'clock this afternoon.

The opening remarks will be made by Chairman Smith, with Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the College giving a welcome address. Mrs. Edith Olsen, president of the Parent-Faculty Club will deliver a short address. Student body officers will be introduced by President Edward Cockrum, who will also welcome the new students.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by an orchestra led by Leon Minear.

Chairman Smith stressed the fact that the assembly will not only be staged to welcome incoming Freshman students, but also transfers from other colleges and universities of the state.

The welcome assembly has become a tradition at the College, having been staged at the beginning of each semester for the past several years. This affair will be augmented by a reception for new students to be held at 4 o'clock in Frederic Burk auditorium, according to Smith.

Cockrum, Student Officials, Deans of Divisions Will Be On Receiving Line

Following the General Assembly today the traditional Reception for new students will be held in Frederic Burk Auditorium at 4 o'clock. Harriet White, chairman of the event, emphasized to GATER representatives that all who could possibly do so should plan to attend. A decidedly informal atmosphere will prevail, according to advices received at the office. There will be refreshments.

Dean Mary A. Ward said new students could be helped by the affair as it would put them in direct contact with both student officials and the deans of the various departments of the school.

Ed Cockrum, members of the student Executive Board, class officers, and all the deans of the college will be present to welcome personally all new students who will attend. Frederic Burk auditorium, the scene of the initial assembly for new students on January 26, will be the site instead of the Women's Gym as formerly. The Associated Women Students of the college are sponsoring the event.

French Club Holds "Welcome" Meeting

In their first meeting of the term, French Club members greeted newcomers to the Cercle Francaise yesterday noon in the activities room.

With George Alves as president and Madame Dony, instructor in French, as sponsor, this organization was formed to bring students of the French language together socially, and to give them an opportunity to perfect themselves in conversational French.

FLASH!

It was decided at the Board of Publications meeting last night that on or after Feb. 17, the price of the Franciscan will be $1.75 unless arrangements are made with Bob Barry, editor, in Room 114 before that date or deposits made before then.

Revived Spirit Pledge of Debating Society

This term Delta Sigma plans to revive its spirit. With the capable guidance of the old-timers the club will become the active organization it was when coached by Mr. King. Members are anxious to find new talent and to talk to anyone who has had debating or who is interested in learning. Debating is one of the finest of the extra-curricula activities at State. Delta Sigma has debated with colleges in the east as well as on the Pacific Coast, and expects to continue this term. Future plans will be discussed at a meeting tomorrow at 11 in Annex A10. All those who would like to join are welcome to come.

Frat Chooses Noon Speakers

Alpha Phi Gamma will sponsor a series of noon speakers on various phases of the newspaper "game."

Bill Rose has been named chairman of the committee to select the speakers, and announces that the first speaker will be heard on February 19. Further information as to subject and speaker will be available at a later date.

A Word With You

By BOB

Now that these Alpha Phi Gammas are getting each and every timid pledgling to do the little things for them, such as carrying their books, and acting as paddle-stoppers, and typing their notices, some of the pledges forget to be sufficiently meek. Needless to say this mightily ires the chaps who are supposed to inspire this awe. So, gazing into the crystal, we see a duplication of the heart (?) warming scenes of the current freshman initiation coming up in the near future.

Those who are taking the newly approved speech major will be interested to know that there will be a meeting in the Activities Room today. This meeting, under the auspices of the English Department, will be dedicated to discussion of this new English major. The time is twelve o'clock. Miss Jessie Casebolt will be in charge.

To those athletically inclined Staters who take the none too gentle but nevertheless ancient and honorable art of fencing, we give notice . . . to wit: Coached by Dan Farmer, there will be a class in said fencing during the noon hour, starting in the near future. Foils and masks will be furnished to the number of fourteen . . . En garde!

SUPPORT STUDENT ACTIVITIES

STUDENT'S CO-OP

TO NEW STUDENTS

Joining with the remainder of the Student Body the Golden Gater extends a cordial welcome to you, the new students and transfers.

We know you will like the College—we do. We also hope that we can come up to your expectations of what the official publicity organ of such a school should be. We solicit your friendship, cooperation, and help.

We especially welcome those students who are interested in journalism, both actively and passively. We ask that you come around and offer your services, that we may assist in giving you the entering wedge into student body activities, which is so vital to the rounding out of any college education.

M. R. W.—'38.

———o———

Following the traditional assembly, the Associated Women Students of the College will be hostesses to all the new students. This reception is also a long standing custom and is one of the high lights of the social calendar.

At this time you may meet informally the instructors, the deans and the officers of the student body. As this reception is open to both men and women and entrance is gained by invitation only, The Golden Gater urges you to go to Mr. Nee's office immediately and secure your bid.

The reception will be held in Frederick Burke auditorium, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. We assure you that you will really regret missing this large event as you are only a new student once at San Francisco State.

W. A. A. Plans Noon Dance

Using the theme, "Dance away on Wednesday," the Block "S" and W. A. A. will endeavor to enlist the cooperation of the different organizations on the campus for the purpose of putting on a free dance in the Women's gym every Wednesday noon.

Their program for the spring semester, in regards to these dances, asks the following help: Every organization will have a Wednesday to put on their own dance. Each organization will be required to pay $4.25 out of their funds for the orchestra. This type of noon day recreation takes the burden off of the shoulders of just one organization and gives each club an opportunity to do their part towards fostering sociability on the campus.

It is not compulsory for any organization to put on a dance. As an added incentive for these clubs to participate in this new idea, the Block "S" and W. A. A. will give a cup to the organization that, in the opinion of the judges whom will be appointed later, has put on the best dance. So far, the

Behind The Scene

By Clarice Dechent

Our thoughts, this week, seem to wander toward the art department. Questions and observations have led us to glean a few facts from behind the canvasses, chalks, and palettes of State's artists.

* * *

Preparation is no word for that which the art instructors had before they came to State. Miss Benteen, for instance, attended umteen art schools here, and also studied in the Orient. Miss Fleming has studied art and design under six noted artists, and was art supervisor in S. F. schools. Miss Mayer, not to be outdone, has worked in Europe and Mexico (where she acquired a taste for mangoes). Mrs. Cooch holds a coveted diploma from Columbia, and has taught in various parts of the U. S. A. She can remember the days when State had one class.

* * *

As for students' art work, you can see for yourselves, by watching weekly exhibits in the north hall on the second floor of College Hall. Everything from cartoons and illustrations to stained glass window designs and still-life drawings are exhibited.

Co-op+Davis=?

Under the inspiring leadership of that well-known social lion, Dick Davis, the co-op continues to bask in its semi-annual early semester place in the sun. The one trouble, however (to Mr. Davis it's a pleasure), is that the proverbial sun does not shine on this venture for long.

Even now, at this early period, the situation is gradually becoming more and more settled. At this writing an occasional smile is beginning to break through the formerly harassed look that so completely characterized the various gal attendants. One attendant almost stopped the show last Friday by murmuring an audible "thank you" at the conclusion of a sale.

By such signs as these can the progress of the term be estimated. Soon those touching little notices advertising the sale of books will come down. The chronic co-op cowboys will resume their established positions in the store, Mr. Davis will continue to stroke his hair meditatively, wondering if there will be any left at this time next year, and State will be well on its way to another semester of athletic, social, and academic progress.

TRACK SQUAD NEEDS MEN SIGN UP!

Coach Seeks Material For Track Squad

Faces Task of Replacing Stone and Jones As Point Winners

With practice every day on the lower and upper field pits, Coach Dave Cox is continuing his search for sufficient talent for this year's track team to make up for the loss of last season's two outstanding tracksters, Rue Stone and Owen Jones. It was the achievements of these two men who accounted for a large part of State's last successful track team. Rue alone accounted for 199 points last season, competing in at least seven events a meet in five meets. Jones was next highest scorer in the season, accounting for 52 points in five meets.

Six Lettermen Return

Among the several men who may be able to in part fill Stone's shoes are the six returning letter-men, whose talent was made to seem second-rate when placed alongside the scores of the "one-man team." "Biff" Shreeve, Daryl "Hoppy" Hopkins, and Stan Kruder head this list of veterans, Hopkins competing in the largest number of events. He will high-jump, broad-jump, and run the high and low hurdles. He can high-jump 6 feet 1, and his record in the low hurdles is :25 flat. He has never before entered the broad-jump or high hurdles. Biff Shreeve has the record of being State's best two-miler, which he does in 9:55.5. Stan Kruder does 2:01 in the 880 and 4:36 in the mile.

Harkness In Pole-Vault

State's triple-threat fullback in football, Bill Harkness, is returning to the track team to enter the pole-vault; Steve Ebert is returning to competition in the shot-put and discus throw; and Bob Cota is making a re-appearance in the one and two-mile events. Lindlow will also return to the distance runs.

Coach Dave has discovered several talented freshmen in his P. E. 80a classes, among them being Soc Pantages in the shot-put, Dick Quarg who will toss the javelin.

Two Foot Trophy Given For Annual Cross-City Battle

With a new two-foot high trophy as an incentive for some aspiring distance runner on his run around the cross-country track, the annual cross-country run is to be held on February 27. The trophy was donated to the Associated Men Students by a prominent San Francisco jeweler, and in turn was presented to Dave Cox, and will become the possession for a year of the winner of the run. The victor is to have his name engraved on the trophy, which is to be a permanent award.

The cup already has several names on it, including that of "Biff" Shreeve and Bob Cota. Among hopefuls who are going to try and have their name placed on this "roll of honor" are Kline, Buickerwood and Uskerwood. The course they will have to take is from school to Duboce, along Duboce to the Sunset Tunnel at Scott St., along Scott for a block to Waller, and back to the college along Waller Street. The nine runners-up will be awarded ribbons. Coach Cox is urging every man in school who possibly can run the event to enter and see just how much talent they may possess.

Farmer Announces Tennis Rankings

Starting preparations incidental to annexing the title of the newly formed Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Association, Coach Dan "Tilden" Farmer today announced that the college has secured the Palace of Fine Arts on Monday and Wednesday afternoons for practice courts.

Farmer also announced the college rankings. Ronny English will again be in the number one position. Frank Collins has been given number two and Joe Rosen will fill the number 3 post. Hammond is in the fourth ranking post and Rod Cavanaugh fills number 5 place on the list.

"These rankings are held only as long as the players are not challenged or beaten by challengers," said Farmer. "In other words, any person interested in tennis has a chance of knocking off the ranking men on the list. The newly formed league should give more impetus to tennis," continued Farmer.

Minor Sports Move Accelerated By Material Prospects

By TIM GUINEY

While the underwear brigade of track and basketball continues to claim its share of recognition on the campus, more and more attention is being fostered on sports not so much in the limelight, but equally important to many of the college students.

According to Dave Cox, head athletic mogul, there is a good deal of material in the college, willing to go out for these sports should these events become organized. Coach Cox has received many requests to include such sports as golf, crew, soccer, boxing, swimming, and rugby, on the college calendar, and at present has the matter under consideration.

Foremost among the golfers is Lucian Morrisson, a veteran of many years experience, and one well known in local golfing circles. Another aspirant to golfing honors is Les Mackie, while Jim Martin of Golden Gater fame rounds out the summary of outstanding golfers of the college.

Among the shin-breakers of soccer is included such names as Al Cartwright, Billy Hammond, and Rod Kavanagh, all well-known stars in their prep days. Hammond is also one of the outstanding forwards of the State quintet.

Pitching Staff Has Harden Worried As Ball Season Opens

Two weeks from today. Two weeks more of worry for a certain Mr. Harden. When Hal Harden leads his 1937 Purple and Gold baseball team on the turf of Roberts Stadium, two weeks from today, he might find the answer to a vexing problem that is confronting him at this writing. The problem, to find a successor to George Powles, the iron man of the 1936 season.

At this writing only two candidates have made a bid for the honor of filling the shoes of the worthy Mr. Powles. One is Runar Stone, former track man. Stone claims to experience with a semi-pro team, but that was many years ago. The other candidate is Owen Jones, another recruit from the Purple and Gold track-team. Whether these two will round into shape is the other part of Hal Harden's problem.

State will open against San Mateo High School with a well-balanced team, outside of the pitching staff. Hal Wood will be back in the center field pasture. Wood was one of the outstanding stars of the 1936 squad and has been rated as one of the finest outfielders in college competition. Flanking him will be Andy Gavron and Pat Bowers.

SECOND GUESSING BLUES

* * * * * *

HOOPSTERS UPSET DOPESTERS

By JIM MARTIN

Expert opinion in the realms of sports is just about as rare as sand on a beach inasmuch as anyone can be a predictor of no mean ability if the occasion so demands. All that is necessary is to make a choice—one does not even need to think about the odds—then if you lose, charge the defeat to the breaks of the game.

In case this is too complicated, the sport seer can resort to a system whereby one is always right all the time. The gent who uses this system is known literally as a second-guesser and technically as a "Saturday-night-I-thought-so" or a "Monday-morning-quarter-back."

Of course, this slogan is very easy to learn; in fact anyone can do it, anyone but State college students. Just why this type of gentry is not so good at predicting remains as yet something of a mystery.

The basketball situation here at State is a classic example of the students' utter inability as second-guessers, let alone expert first-guessers.

At the beginning of the season all the hypocritical and not a few of the die-hards for "Old S. F. State" were ready to sing the funeral march for the Gater quintet. Of course things did look bad as veterans were few and the new material did not smell anything like roses.

Nothing but a wobbly start could be expected, and this is just what happened. "Red Hot" Cy Atkinson managed to high-score the team through 7 straight victories. Mark one against the second-guessers.

Of course, the members of this aggregation knew they comprised a team all along, so they tossed white-wash in buckets all over Menlo. Then, just to prove their point, the Gaters dumped Fresno State twice—and the second-guessers turned their pockets inside out as a token of defeat.

Last Minute Shot Defeats Aggie Quintet

Plutte Sinks Foul Shot 10 Seconds Before Gun Ends 40-39 Game

Ten short seconds remain in State-Cal. Aggies Saturday night basketball contest. The score is deadlocked at 30 all. Bill Plutte, Gater guard, settles his number 10's on the hardwood floor, and poises for the shot that might end the game. All eyes are riveted on the figure when Dobbins, Aggie forward, becomes over anxious and fouls Plutte in an attempt to stop the try.

Ten seconds still remain in the battle as Plutte again settles his pedal extremities, this time for the free throw. Calmly he drops the leather through the mesh, Coach Dan Farmer relaxes, and the spectators go wild. Things are still pretty much in an uproar as the final gun sounds those seconds later, and the Mustangs are once more tamed by the Gater.

Story of Game

And that, lads and lassies, is just about the story of S. F. State's thirteenth victory of the season, except for a few things that are deserving of mention.

The first is that the battle was indeed a battle as the score indicates. The second is that the Davis team was leading by four points with only two minutes left to play. Bernard DeBischop, freshman, and one of the neophytes in a Gater uniform, took care of this little matter by finding the hemp twice in less time than it takes to tell about it. These markers, coupled with eight more, made "Notch's" debut quite an impressive one.

Forward Wall Good

On the other hand, no Gater victory can go without mentioning veterans Johnson, Atkinson, Wilkes, and Hammond. The State forward wall was one of the main factors in the victory with their close guarding and timely shooting.

Top man in the scoring was Aggies' center, Dobbins, who topped DeBischop's and Atkinson's total of 10 digits.

W. A. A. Welcomes Women Students

New women students will be officially welcomed into State by the W. A. A., Thursday, February 11, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. in the Women's Gymnasium.

The committee in charge of the event includes Helen Shinn, Helen Bartman, Audrey Stewart, Mary Bilafer, and Eldris Burrowes.

Franciscan Announces New Senior Photograph Dates

Senior class members will be given another chance to have 1937 Franciscan pictures taken on the campus. Additional appointments will be made by Fisher Studios, the date to be set later. All seniors who have not had pictures taken were urged to check with the Franciscan office if they want their photos in the 1937 book.

"It is extremely important that we make this check at the present time," declared Robert Barry, editor. "We must have the senior pictures completed within the next three weeks, if the book is to come out on time.

Announcement was also made that individual pictures for other sections of the book would be taken tomorrow and Monday.

LOW SENIOR CLASS HOLDS ANNUAL FEAST

On Thursday, February 11, at 6:30, the low senior class will hold its annual dinner in the Elizabeth Inn, which is located at 1911 Van Ness Avenue. Arrangements for the affair are in the hands of Elaine Twomey, Blanche Tovey, Hal Widney, and James Seawright.

Members of the class are urged to sign up for the dinner on the class Bulletin Board.

Noon Dances

W. A. A., Block "S", the Faculty, the Senior Class, the Junior Class and the Executive Board have pledged their support towards this venture and are making plans for their dances.

"It is the hope of myself and Virginia Kyriazi, chairman of the W. A. A., that the different organizations will put up some stiff competition for the cup by putting on some good affairs. We are sure that this new program will receive the whole-hearted support of you students and we are requesting your attendance, don't forget that all these dances will be FREE, with a student body card," said George Bogdanoff, head of the Block "S".

Organizations will please drop a note in Bogdanoff's box No. 488, if they desire to do their bit and put on the dance.
